

Join us as we welcome Rev. Willian Colli Cen and Erly Flor Santos Cen of Yucatan Peninsula Mission (YPM) Mexico to worship at First Presbyterian Church of Farmington at 10 am next Sunday, September 17th!

From June 24th-July 1st, 2017, seven youth and adults from First Presbyterian Church of Farmington joined sixteen youth and adults from First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham in continuing to build the school adjoining YPM University in Leona Vicario, Mexico. It was a life-changing experience and one that we will not soon forget!

About YPM: YPM is committed to serving the needs of the Mayan/Mexican people in the Zona Maya region of the Yucatan Peninsula.

Incorporated as a not-for-profit in both the U.S. and Mexico, YPM provides opportunities for positive change to children, adults, families, and communities in the Yucatan Peninsula of Mexico -- through service projects, education, health care, cultural exchange and spiritual support.

The base of YPM is located in Leona Vicario, Quintana Roo, Mexico, and is equipped to host groups of up to 40 people. YPM provides safe and delicious meals, sleeping accommodations in hammocks or beds, and all in-country transportation.

From: ypmusa.org

Join us on Saturday, September 23rd from 8:30 am to 12 noon for a workshop entitled The Church in the Midst of Change, sponsored by the Christian Education & Faith Development workgroup of the Presbytery of Detroit.

Then, join us in welcoming Malinda Spencer, PC (USA) Associate for Curricula and Training, to worship at First Presbyterian Church of Farmington at 10 am on Sunday, September 24th!

Malinda served as Christian Educator and Resource Center Director for Heartland Presbytery, where she worked with congregations of many sizes and settings. Believing that Christian education work is a source of joy and fulfillment, Malinda has equipped individuals and congregations to minister to every age of believer and every stage in the church's life. She is married and has two sons, Bruce and Evan.