

Grosse Pointe Memorial

Is there hope for peace in Israel/Palestine? Some of us believe there is. That hope comes, in part, from the Mar Elias Educational Institution (MEEI), a K-12 school in Israel that educates children of all faiths. On Sunday, May 19 we have a chance to learn more about the school through a visit by its founder, Father Elias Chacour. He will speak from 4:30 - 6:00 p.m. at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church in Grosse Pointe Farms. There is no cost of admission, but let us know you are coming by RSVPing here: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/milestones-and-living-stones-an-evening-with-archbishop-chacour-tickets-59851055117?aff=affiliate1>. To learn more about MEEI and Father Chacour, you can visit the website of Pilgrims of Ibillin, the American-based group that supports MEEI: <https://www.pilgrimsofibilin.org/>. There is a video about this beloved peacemaker here: <https://vimeo.com/4172952>. People who know Father Chacour will tell you that his talk and Q & A is not something you want to miss!
