

Free Mission Conference

April 10, 2018

Greetings!

We would like to invite members of your church or organization to be a part of our Spring Mission Conference titled “In the Neighborhood” on Saturday, May 12, from 10:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. at Kirk in the Hills. We believe God is doing great things in our neighborhood and the purpose of this conference is to learn more about what that looks like and how we can join God there.

In addition to having great speakers like Dr. Hunter Farrell (Pittsburgh Theological Seminary), Ms. Tina Rowan (Accent Pontiac) and Ms. Khadija Fobbs (The New Foster Care), we will have more than 20 organizations share information about what they do and what volunteer opportunities may exist for members of our community to get involved in. This free conference and lunch will allow you to connect with other mission-minded people in our neighborhood. Together, let’s see what more we can do to help those in need, and learn more about how we can work together for the good of God.

Please post and share the enclosed flyer and let others in your church or organization know about our upcoming conference and encourage them to register by May 8. I will also be sending an electronic version of the flyer via email soon. To register for the conference go to: kirkinthehills.org, under Resources/Online Registration.

I’m looking forward to partnering with you in Mission in our Neighborhood.

Sincerely,

Rev. Fernando Rodríguez
Pastor for Missional Renewal
