

When Mother's Day Hurts: A Service of Hope and Healing

Thursday, May 2, 2019 at 7:00 pm

At First Presbyterian Birmingham

Whatever your story, grieving the loss of a mother, a child, struggling with infertility, singleness, if you never knew your mother, or any other reason why you find Mother's Day painful. This service has been designed with you in mind. Together we will acknowledge the bittersweet emotions surrounding Mother's Day and create a safe space to grieve, lament and invite God into our struggle.

A photograph of a person's hands holding a single pink rose with green leaves. The person is wearing a dark jacket. The background is slightly blurred.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, BIRMINGHAM

When Mother's Day Hurts

A Service of Hope and Healing

Thursday, May 2
7:00 pm

WHATEVER YOUR STORY, WHETHER YOU'RE GRIEVING THE LOSS OF A MOTHER, OR THE LOSS OF A CHILD, WHETHER YOU'RE STRUGGLING WITH INFERTILITY, OR SINGLENES, WHETHER YOU NEVER KNEW YOUR MOTHER OR ANY OTHER REASON WHY YOU FIND MOTHER'S DAY PAINFUL, THIS SERVICE HAS BEEN DESIGNED WITH YOU IN MIND. TOGETHER WE WILL ACKNOWLEDGE THE BITTERSWEET EMOTIONS SURROUNDING MOTHER'S DAY, AND CREATE A SAFE SPACE TO GRIEVE, TO LAMENT AND INVITE THE GOD WHO LOVES US INTO OUR STRUGGLE.