

"Our Money Tree is getting pretty sparse!"

Need Stewardship?

*Four Chances to Help
Your Members Grow in Grace and Giving*

The church is caught in the midst of dramatic—and traumatic—changes in funding its ministry. As “the Great Generation” passes, we are faced with finding ways to serve—and fund—in confusing times. For most of us, the “money tree” is looking pretty sparse! Let’s all work together to devise and develop new strategies to support God’s work. The Presbytery of Detroit has heard your pleas for help with stewardship in a changing world. We are here to help you and your congregation.

Save these dates and plan to learn together. You may attend any or all of these events. Come alone or bring your church leaders—except at the first meeting, “for pastors only.” For more information, contact the any of the Event Coordinators listed below. We hope to see you at all of these events as we learn and grow together. All events are free of charge.

"For Pastors Only"

Tuesday, May 21 Detroit, Westminster, Parlor
10:00am to noon 17567 Hubbell St, Detroit

Learn and share with other pastors about the unique challenges and opportunities pastors face to fund ministry in a changing church. All ordained clergy are welcome!

"Annual Campaigns:

How to Help Your Members Give—and Like It!"

Monday, June 17 Royal Oak, First
6:00-8:00pm 529 Hendrie Blvd, Royal Oak
Free Dinner Included

Annual Stewardship Campaigns come in all shapes and sizes. We will preview a few options, and share some "little extras" that will help your members enjoy this year's campaign.

"Why Is It So Hard to Talk About Money?"

Saturday, July 27 Birmingham, First, Calvin Hall
9:00-noon 1669 W. Maple Rd,
Birmingham

Churches struggle to talk about their needs, as well as helping our members undergird a spiritual perspective for their stewardship. Churches are changing—and so must we.

"The Amateur's Guide to Stewardship"

Tuesday, September 17 Novi, Faith Community
10:00am-noon 44400 W 10 Mile Rd, Novi

"Amateur" means "for the love." Learn how to help members give "for the love of it."
