

Child and Youth Safety Policy
First Presbyterian Church (Ann Arbor)

INTRODUCTION

PURPOSE:

First Presbyterian Church (Ann Arbor) is a spiritual community that takes seriously its responsibility to provide a safe and nurturing environment for children and youth who participate in our ministries. This policy statement covers the obligations of church employees and volunteers who work with children and/or youth. All employees and volunteers of First Presbyterian Church (Ann Arbor) must comply with Parts 1 and 2 of the "Child and Youth Safety Policy," and complete the appropriate application form(s) in Part 3.

All are encouraged to participate fully in the lives and ministry of children and youth. However, the church has an overriding obligation to safeguard all children and youth under its care from abuse and neglect. The following, (1) "Requirements of Employees and Volunteers in the Children and Youth Ministries," (2) "Child and Youth Safety Guidelines and Procedures," and (3) "The Child and Youth Ministry Application Form(s)," reflect the commitment of First Presbyterian Church to provide a safe environment for all children, youth, employees, and volunteers who participate in any church-sponsored activity or ministry. These three (3) parts plus the Introduction constitute the Child and Youth Safety Policy.

DEFINITION OF VOLUNTEERS:

For the purpose of this policy, "volunteers" are defined as those people who of their own free will offer to help lead or provide child care for the children and youth who come under the care of First Presbyterian Church (Ann Arbor). The term "volunteers" shall include but not be limited to all teachers, drivers, chaperones, childcare providers, hall monitors, youth sponsors, youth leaders and confirmation mentors who work with children and youth.

For the purpose of this policy, childcare providers who are not regular paid employees of the church but are monetarily reimbursed for their occasional service shall be included in the term "volunteers."

All volunteers who are in leadership roles in these ministries are living out the vows taken when children are baptized to nurture our children and youth in the Christian faith. Every volunteer plays a key role in fostering spiritual development of children, youth and families in our church community.

REQUIREMENTS:

In order to provide a safe community for children, youth, and adults, the church requires all employees and volunteers to comply with the "Requirements of Employees and Volunteers in the Child and Youth Ministries" and the "Child and Youth Safety Guidelines and Procedures" adopted by the Session of this church. In doing so all employees and volunteers will be asked to complete the appropriate application (see Part 3). All employees and volunteers will review the attached "Guidelines and Procedures" at an orientation session or meet with the appropriate staff person. All employees and volunteers will be under the supervision of the respective professional staff persons.

Any person who is currently under investigation for, or has been convicted of (1) criminal sexual conduct, (2) neglect of a child, or (3) physical abuse, will not be permitted to work or volunteer in any church-sponsored activity or program involving children or youth.

REVIEW:

The Children ' s Education and Family Ministry Committee and the Youth Education Committee shall review the Child and Youth Safety Policy and its implementation annually and report to Session.

PART 1:REQUIREMENTS OF EMPLOYEES AND VOLUNTEERS IN THE CHILDREN AND YOUTH MINISTRIES:

- A. At no time shall one employee or volunteer be allowed to be alone with a child or a youth. The only exception to this policy would be in a situation in which the contact occurs in a public place and other persons are in and out of the area where the employee or volunteer is working with the child or youth.
- B. All employees and children and youth volunteers must read the “Child and Youth Safety Policy” of this church; agree to it by completing and signing the appropriate application form(s), and attend an orientation session or meet with the appropriate staff person to review the “Guidelines and Procedures.”
- C. If a person who wishes to volunteer with First Presbyterian’s children or youth is a non-member, or has been a member for less than 6 months prior to volunteering, then they must complete and sign “The Child and Youth Safety Policy” and additionally supply the names of 3 non-family members from the First Presbyterian congregation who can give recommendations. This is provided for in item four (4) of the Child and Youth Volunteer Application.† They must also attend an orientation session or meet with the appropriate staff person to review the guidelines. All volunteers, whether members or non-members, must be active participants in the life of the church for at least 6 months prior to volunteering their services to the children and youth ministries.
- D. Employees and volunteers are required to report immediately to their supervisors any suspicious or inappropriate behavior of suspected (1) criminal sexual conduct, (2) neglect of a child, or (3) physical abuse.

PART 2:CHILD AND YOUTH SAFETY GUIDELINES AND PROCEDURES*I. On-site procedures

- A. At no time shall one employee or volunteer be allowed to be alone with a child or a youth. The only exception to this policy would be in a situation in which the contact occurs in a public place and other persons are in and out of the area where the employee or volunteer is working with the child or youth.
- B. Each floor containing classrooms shall have a Hall Monitor present during Church School hours.
- C. Restroom use: Pre-school age children will be accompanied to the restroom by their teacher who will wait at the door for the child.† The Hall Monitor shall be informed of their destination on the way to and from the restroom.† (If a pre-school age child needs assistance in the restroom, the teacher shall provide the assistance necessary, first encouraging the child to handle as much of the process as he/she can.) Elementary school age children may choose a same sex “buddy” to accompany him/her to the bathroom. The Hall Monitor shall be informed of their destination on the way to and from the restroom.
- D. From 9:30-10:30 a.m. and 11:00- noon on Sundays, all rooms on classroom floors that do not have hallway windows shall have their doors either locked and closed or blocked open.† The only exceptions shall be the adult restrooms on the 100, 200 and 400 levels.† At these times, the 400 and 100 level restrooms shall be off-limits to adults and the 200 level adult restrooms off-limits to children.

- E. If a situation unexpectedly does not meet the criteria of this policy then alternatives must be put into place so that the event is in compliance. The following examples are meant as illustration only and are not to be perceived as the only possible solutions.

Example: If only one teacher and one child/youth shows up for a Sunday school class then the supervisor could recommend these solutions:

- a. the teacher and child/youth could join another class for the morning
- b. the supervisor could join the teacher and child/youth
- c. the teacher and child/youth could attend church

Example: The mentor/confirmand partners must find ways to meet the criteria of the policy.

- a. the confirmand could meet the mentor in a public place such as a coffee shop
- b. the confirmand/mentor pair could meet with another confirmand/mentor pair

- II. Off-site procedures when the children and youth are part of the First Presbyterian Church community
 - A. At no time shall one employee or volunteer be allowed to be alone with a child or a youth. The only exception to this policy would be in a situation in which the contact occurs in a public place and other persons are in and out of the area where the employee or volunteer is working with the child or youth.
 - B. As each facility will be different it will be the responsibility of the supervisors to determine how best to use the facility and comply with the church policy.
 - C. Overnights: Males and females shall be segregated during sleeping time. If it is deemed necessary for adults to share sleeping accommodations with the children/youth, a minimum of two adults, the same sex as the children/youth to be chaperoned, shall sleep in each area.
 - D. All drivers and chaperones on children/youth off-site trips shall be included in all parts of the Child and Youth Safety Policy.

- II Off-site procedures when the employees or volunteers are representing First Presbyterian Church (Ann Arbor) but the children and youth are not a part of the First Presbyterian Church community (e.g. Grandale Church of the Master, Haiti mission trips, Philippines mission trips)
 - A. At no time shall one employee or volunteer be allowed to be alone with a child or a youth. The only exception to this policy would be in a situation in which the contact occurs in a public place and other persons are in and out of the area where the employee or volunteer is working with the child or youth.
 - B. When representing the church all employees and child/youth volunteers must comply with the Child and Youth Safety Policy
 - C. As each facility will be different it will be the responsibility of the supervisors to determine how best to use the facility and comply with the church policy.
 - D. Overnights: Males and females shall be segregated during sleeping time.† If it is deemed necessary for adults to share sleeping accommodations with the children/youth, a minimum of two adults, the same sex as the children/youth to be chaperoned, shall sleep in each area.
 - E. All drivers and chaperones on children/youth off-site trips shall be included in all parts of the Child and Youth Safety Policy.

- IV. Non-church sponsored use of the church facility procedures
 - A. Anyone who uses the First Presbyterian facility for non-church sponsored activities with children or youth (e.g. music teachers, Kumon math classes, Triangle Nursery, Boy Scouts) will be required to comply with the church policy, which states: At no time shall one employee or volunteer be allowed to be alone with a child or a youth. The only exception to this policy would be in a situation in which the contact occurs in a public place and other persons are in and out of the area where the employee or volunteer is working with the child or youth.
 - B. At the time a contract is made with a non-church group or person to use the church facility, it shall be the duty of the Church Administrator to obtain written confirmation from the users of their need to comply with the above.

V. Personnel Committee procedures

- A. It shall be the responsibility of the church Personnel Committee to give each newly hired employee a copy of the Child and Youth Safety Policy. A copy of the policy will be included in the Personnel Manual under "Exhibits."
- B. An obligation to enforce the policy shall be written into the contract of each employee who has significant responsibility for supervising employees or volunteers who lead children or youth (e.g. the Director of Children and Family Ministry, the Associate Pastor for Youth, the Music Director, the Assistant Music Director).
- C. Ministerial and Program staff members, along with other employees who work with children or youth, will review the implementation of the "Child and Youth Safety Policy" each September.

VI. Initial reporting of suspicious or inappropriate activity

- A. Suspicious or inappropriate activity brought to the attention of an employee or volunteer must be reported immediately (within 24 hours) to the appropriate professional staff person.¹
- B. The appropriate person(s) to whom to make this report to are:
 - 1. Christian Education staff person
 - 2. Associate Pastor for Youth or the Pastor/Head of Staff
 - 3. Other individuals who may have supervisory responsibilities
- C. The person making the report of the alleged abuse or receiving the report of suspicious activity shall then document the date, time and circumstances of the alleged incident.
- D. The person receiving the initial report of suspicious activity will report immediately to the Pastor/Head of Staff, who will inform the church legal counsel and the church insurer.
- E. The Christian Education Staff person, or Associate Pastor for Youth, or individuals who may have child/youth supervisory responsibilities and the Pastor/Head of Staff, will determine what, if any, further action shall be taken.
- F. All allegations shall be regarded as serious, and due consideration shall be given to the rights and privacy of both the alleged victim and the person being accused.
- G. The person who is being accused will be required to refrain from participating in all child and youth activities until it is determined if further action shall be taken. Care shall be taken to handle this in a discreet manner.
- H. After reviewing the reported circumstances, if the appropriate person receiving the report and the Pastor/Head of Staff determine that there is reasonable cause to suspect child abuse or neglect (as defined by the State of Michigan Child Protection Law), then further action shall be taken as described in Section VII entitled "Staff Response to Allegations of Abuse and Neglect" and in a manner consistent with the Book of Order (Section D B 10.0000 et seq.)
- I. Even if the allegation is not sustained, the professional staff persons making the decision have the option to recommend another appropriate action, which could include removal from the program, a review of the process in that program, and /or further education.

VII. Staff response to allegations of abuse or neglect

If it is determined that there is reasonable cause to suspect child abuse or neglect, then the following steps will be taken:

- A. All allegations will be taken seriously and will be handled in a manner that is considerate and protective (see n.1).
- B. A Response Team will be assigned to take further action.† The Response Team will consist of: (1) the Pastor/Head of Staff, (2) the church administrator, (3) at least two members of Session appointed by the Pastor/Head of Staff, (4) legal counsel, and (5) others as deemed appropriate (e.g. a mental health professional).

C. The Response Team will promptly:

1. Ensure appropriate contact and cooperation with local and state civil and criminal authorities as required by law, and consistent with the Book of Order (Section D B 10.0000 et seq.) (see n.1).

If appropriate under the law, under the guidance of the church legal counsel and insurance carrier, the Response Team may also:

2. Interview all appropriate persons.
3. If it will not put the child in jeopardy, contact the alleged victim=s parents.
4. Maintain documents of all efforts to handle the situation.
5. Appoint a spokesperson, who will present a clear position statement of the church regarding child abuse and include policies and established safeguards. This person will be the only person communicating to the press and authorities. The spokesperson will also give information to the congregation as appropriate.

D. The ministerial staff will provide appropriate counseling.

VIII. Staff Care of Documents

- A. Only the child and youth professional staff will review forms filled out by volunteers. The child and youth professional staff is defined as the Director of Children’s Education, the Associate Pastor for Youth, the Coordinator of Youth, Music Professionals who supervise children/youth, and an appointed support staff person.
- B. All information will be treated in a confidential manner. Except in the case of a response to a report of suspicious activity, only the appropriate professional staff shall have access to the information on these documents. In the case of a report of suspicious activity, the Response Team and the appropriate legal authorities will have access to the information.
- C. The documents will be kept in secure storage.
- D. References will be contacted by the appropriate staff persons before the individual begins service.
- E. Volunteers will be required to complete a Child and Youth Volunteer Application form once every five (5) years. In the interim years volunteers will be required to complete a “Child and Youth Volunteer Short Form,” verifying that the information provided in their application is still accurate and truthful.
