

The Multicultural Ministries Team of the Presbytery is happy to share with you a developing, regular resource. Each fifth Sunday of the month we want to seek the wisdom and listen for the voices of our sisters and brothers around the world.

Fifth Sunday Cultural Voices

In your preparations for worship this week we invite you to listen to voices and wisdom from our Asian American sisters and brothers.

Ken Fong, pastor of Evergreen Baptist Church of Los Angeles and host of the “Asian American” podcast. <http://asianamericapodcast.com/>

Young Adult perspectives on Asian American experience from InterVarsity Margaret Yu, National Director of Epic Movement:
<http://resources.epicmovement.com>

List of Hymns and prayers from Asia and the Pacific Islands, curated by the United Methodist Church-<http://www.umcdiscipleship.org/resources/hymns-songs-prayers-liturgy-for-asian-pacific-american-heritage-month-may>

For further reading:

Library of articles on Asian American Theology, worship, ministry and more- <https://aatfweb.org/category/w-article/>

The Following Books-

Eunjoo Mary Kim, Preaching the Presence of God: A Homiletic from an Asian American Perspective. (<http://alturl.com/wyshj>) and Preaching in the Age of Globalization (<http://alturl.com/qhgt7>).

Julius Kim, Preaching the Whole Counsel of God (<http://alturl.com/xokjw>).

* Please find the post on our facebook page, join the conversation, and add resources bring our attention to other resources from Asian American Sisters and brothers. <https://www.facebook.com/Multicultural-Ministry-Team-of-the-Detroit-Presbytery-371600726187078/?fref=ts>