

Children and Youth Minister

First Presbyterian Church of Northville is looking for a Children and Youth Leader. Duties include directing the educational, social and missional activities for children and youth through 12th grade. Desired qualifications include experience with youth ministry, strong communication and organizational skills, and ability to connect with youth of varying ages. A complete list of duties and qualifications can be found at www.fpcnorthville.org. This is a salaried position designed for approximately 24 hours per week, with some flexibility as to when the hours are worked. The compensation range is between $22,000 and $25,000 per year, depending on qualifications. Group health insurance at employee's own cost is available. Qualified candidates should send a cover letter and resume to hr.firstpresby@gmail.com.