

Calvary Presbyterian, a small, neighborhood church in Ann Arbor, is seeking a piano accompanist to serve in interim role, following the retirement of our long time, beloved music director. This position could potentially lead to a permanent accompanist/music director role for the right person. Calvary has a "blended" worship service, with both praise songs and traditional hymns.

If interested, please contact office manager Jan Fleming at calvarya2@gmail.com, and attach resume. If you have questions, please call the office at (734) 971-3121.
