

Greetings from Alma College, Michigan's only Presbyterian college. We have recently begun a search for the college's next chaplain and director of spiritual life. We are seeking a dynamic Christian leader to serve as campus pastor who will provide creative vision and direction for the religious life environment of the college, in keeping with our Presbyterian heritage.

The position description and the requirements for consideration are found at <https://www.alma.edu/live/news/1475-chaplain-and-director-of-spiritual-life>.
