

JOIN AMERICORPS AND THE PRESBYTERY OF SOUTH LOUISIANA TO HELP LOUISIANA RECOVER FROM THE FLOOD OF 2016

FULL TIME POSITIONS
AVAILABLE IN BATON ROUGE
AND LAFAYETTE, LOUISIANA

What happened in Louisiana?

In August of 2016, Louisiana experienced record breaking flooding. Over 6.9 trillion gallons of water fell on 22 parishes. Estimates of the amount of homes damaged are as high as 150,000.

Why haven't I heard about this?

Because the floods were the result of an unnamed rain storm, and not a hurricane, the flooding went largely unreported in the media.

What can I do to help?

Join us as an AmeriCorps Site Supervisor and "GET THINGS DONE!"

Help families get back into their homes:

Our Site Supervisors lead construction with volunteer groups from all over the states to make flood damaged homes safe and secure so that the thousands of families still displaced from their homes can return.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Be 18 and older
- Have a high school degree or its equivalent
- Willing to make a service commitment of 6 months and 900 hours
- Comfort working with a variety of people
- Strong communication and organizational skills
- Demonstrated leadership abilities
- All members must submit to a background check

BENEFITS:

- Bi-Monthly Living Stipend of $526.25 (pre-tax)
  - Education award of $2,907
  - Free health care coverage
  - Forbearance and partial interest payments on eligible student loans
  - Ongoing training and professional development opportunities
- **Housing options may be available***
